

SEE VINDICATION OF DAUGHERTY AS CASE NEARS END

Impeachment Proceedings
Before Committee
May End Today.

CRITIC WILLING TO WITHDRAW CHARGES

Books Are Thrown Open To
Cong. Woodruff For Examination.

Washington, Dec. 20.—The end of the Daugherty impeachment hearings may come today in complete vindication of the attorney general by the house judiciary committee.

Representative Woodruff, Republican, Michigan, one of the chief critics of the attorney general, will submit his evidence concerning reprehensible delay on the part of Daugherty in prosecuting war fraud and profiteering cases.

The Michigan congressman told the committee he was "prosecutor and a supplementary inquiry should develop Daugherty less at fault than reported he would tell the committee frankly to withdraw his charge.

Department of justice officials threw open the books to Woodruff for examination, confident they would exonerate Attorney General Daugherty from blame. The judiciary committee awaited the outcome in firm belief their vexatious labors were at an end.

If Woodruff is not satisfied with the results of his inquiry the committee will go ahead with the examination of witnesses whom Woodruff may ask to have called.

A report from the committee to the house on the impeachment inquiry is not to be presented until after the Christmas holidays, it was said by members. Time is desired in which to determine the form and character of the report both as to the attorney general and regarding the conduct of Representative Keller, Minnesota, Republican, who brought the impeachment, refusing to supply evidence and explosively condemning the committee for "whitewashing" the attorney general.

TOWNSHIPS LOSE AUTO TAX FUNDS

Towns Receive Money That Should Go For Road
Improvements.

That the townships of the county are losing thousands of dollars every year that ought to go into their road funds is the claim of some of the township officials who have been giving the matter attention recently. The loss is from the automobile tax, half of which comes back from the state to the taxing district in which the owner of the auto lives.

Lisbon is given as an example. All the farmers living in the townships covered by the five rural routes leading out of the town give Lisbon as their residence, and when the apportionment of the tax is made Lisbon gets the money from auto owners in Center, Hanover, Wayne, Elkrum, Salem and other townships. If the name of the township were placed upon the blanks the money could be secured for the township road funds, it is claimed.

What is true of Lisbon is true of every other incorporated town in the county. It is said that the trustees and the Farm Bureau are planning to look into the matter and try to divert the money to the township road funds instead of letting the towns get the cash.

RIDDLE GRANTED ALIMONY RELEASE

Judge Carl H. Smith of Steubenville, presided over a session of common pleas court Tuesday, hearing the motion of Judge Lodge Riddle of the probate court, to be released from the payment of any further alimony to his former wife, Anna Riddle. The motion was sustained by the court after a brief hearing and the payment of all alimony to Mrs. Riddle will stop after Jan. 1.

The divorce and alimony case of Judge and Mrs. Riddle was heard last April, and while he was granted a divorce he was ordered to pay alimony amounting to $100 for two months, and $50 thereafter until the final order of the court. Judge Riddle filed the motion recently to have the alimony payment terminated, and the motion was submitted to Judge Smith the trial judge in the case.

Transfer Funds To Safety Department

Transfer of $600 from the general to the safety fund for operating expenses during the remainder of the fiscal year was authorized by Salem city council Tuesday night.

The transfer was made necessary due to the fact that a shortage exists in the safety fund and unless additional funds were received the department would be unable to meet running expenses.

Children Send Letters Mailed To Kris Kingle

The hearts of some Salem children will be made happy in the very near future if old Kris Kingle can spare a few of his busy moments this week to read the letters sent to him through Uncle Sam's postoffice department here in Salem.

The Christmas season at the postoffice would not be complete without the usual quota of letters addressed in childish hands to Santa Claus.

This year was no exception, according to Postmaster George Mounts, who stated that a few letters to the patron saint of Christmas had been received at the local office.

These letters will be held until after the Christmas season and then forwarded to the proper department at Washington.

YOUTH IS KILLED WHILE HUNTING

East Rochester Boy Dies
When Gun Discharges Accidentally.

Harry Clay, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Clay, living near East Rochester, was shot and almost instantly killed about 9 a. m. Wednesday while hunting with his father on their farm.

The father had loaned his gun on a brush pile while endeavoring to dislodge a rabbit from under the pile and while doing so the gun was knocked to the ground, the jar discharging the weapon.

The full charge entered the boy's chest and death was almost instant, according to a physician.

The youth is survived by his parents, four brothers and three sisters.

CANADIAN FIRM CLAIMS $115,000 AS COMMISSION

In the international lawsuit being tried before Judge James Glenn in court room No. 2, at Lisbon, in which the Victoria Electric Supply Co., of Toronto, Canada, is trying to collect a claim of $115,000 from the Adamant Porcelain Co., of East Liverpool, A. L. Winston, president of the Victoria company, is still on the witness stand, having been upon the stand since Monday.

He is not through with his direct examination and will have to be cross examined by the attorneys for the defense, and the indications are that the hearing will take all the week.

The suit is brought by the plaintiff company for commissions alleged to be due of orders taken in Canada and which it is alleged were not filled by the East Liverpool concern according to contract.

BIG APPLE CROP GOING TO WASTE IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Dec. 20.—One-third of the apple crop of the state of Washington is going to ruin because of lack of transportation and high freight rates, John Quincy Adams, president of the Washington State Farmers' Union declared today.

Adams estimated the monetary loss to Washington growers at $1,500,000 out of a total crop valuation of $6,000,000.

"Apples are being left on trees or dumped into the rivers or are frozen while in flimsy warehouses while waiting cars which never come," Adams said. "Farmers throughout the apple districts are using private cellars and all available storage space to hold the apples and prevent their freezing until cars arrive."

HEMPHILL, ONCE YANKEE PLAYER, IS FOUND DEAD

New York, Dec. 20.—Harry Hemphill, former outfielder of the New York Yankees and St. Louis Browns, is dead in this city from unknown causes.

His body was found in an Eighth avenue rooming house late last night and an autopsy will be performed to discover the cause of his death.

Friends in Youngstown, the player's home, have been notified.

Hemphill was transferred from the Browns to the Yankees in 1908 and was regarded as one of the best hitters in the league at that time. Later he managed the Atlanta club and played in the minor leagues until he drifted out of sight.

Death From Freezing Saves Man, 106, From Poorhouse

New York, Dec. 20.—The long trail in the life of Joseph Bernoto, 106 years old, seemed to wind to the little house over the hill where the remaining days would be spent on the charity of others.

This thought gripped him for Bernoto had always taken care of his 95-year-old wife and 70-year-old son.

But the cold weather came. There was no fuel with which to warm themselves or clothes in which to wrap themselves. The fight against the poorhouse seemed about over.

THREE SURVIVORS OF MINE MASSACRE TESTIFY AT TRIAL

Trial Of First Five Of 72
Indicted Men Become Very Dramatic.

ORDER IN COURT
ROOM MAINTAINED

People Crowd Into Court
House To Hear Story
Of Survivors.

Marion, Ill., Dec. 20.—Three more survivors of the mine massacre of June 22 today are ready to tell the details of their escape from the murderous mob.

The trial of the first five of 72 men indicted on charges of riot and murder growing out of this black page in bloody Williamson's history has become intensely dramatic.

Spectators in the courtroom sit bent forward until their backs ache, trying to catch every word of these intense recitals. Three to testify are James C. O'Rourke, Bernard Jones and William Carus.

It is almost impossible to hear in the courtroom even a few feet from the witness. Judge Dwight Hartwell, the Landis of Egypt and most picturesque character of the bench in Illinois since Judge Landis left the federal court, stands beside the witnesses admonishing them to speak up and seeing to it that they do when their voices drop.

He has been forced to order all windows and doors tightly closed while witnesses testify in order that people may hear. After each witness leaves the stand windows and doors are opened and people are allowed to come up for air. It grows intensely close and stifling.

Resentful of Fear's
The judge wielded a gilt pottery vase as a gavel with which to tap for order. Every citizen of Williamson county knows that when the judge pounds with that vase it is up to him to be quiet. Order has been maintained perfectly the judge being rather resentful of fears expressed by the attorney general's office that disorders were likely.

People stood up all around the edges of the courtroom yesterday and today to hear the story of the survivors. These four men are nervous and anxious to finish their tasks here. They are well guarded.

Robert Officer, young graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, bookkeeper of the mine, was on the stand all day yesterday.

James C. O'Rourke's recital is awaited with the greatest interest, but his will not be so thrilling a story. He was too near death to remember much of the final scenes. He was one of the six left for dead at the Herrin cemetery. He had several bullet wounds and a scar on his throat where he was slashed.

WELLSVILLE MAN BURNS TO DEATH

Antonio Bellino 25, of Wellsville, died in the East Liverpool City hospital about 6 a. m. Wednesday as the result of burns sustained late Tuesday night when an oil torch he was carrying exploded.

Bellino was employed in the engine house at the C. & P. Railroad shops in Wellsville and was engaged in some work about the locomotives when the torch exploded.

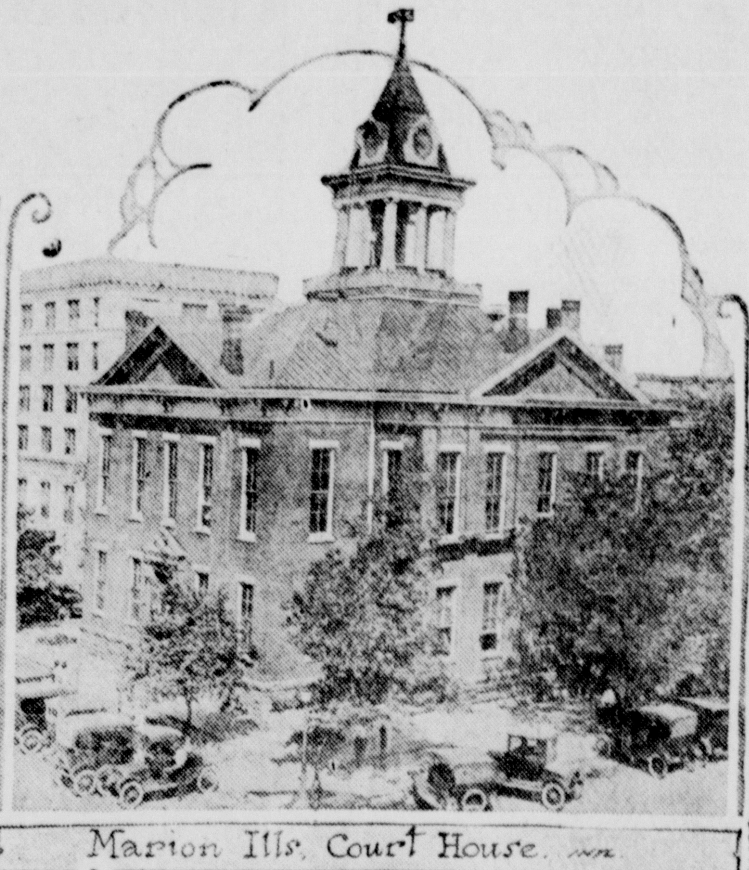

He was showered with flaming oil and was covered with severe burns from head to foot. He was removed to the hospital where death ended his sufferings.

He is survived by his wife and one child.

MEANEST THIEF STRIPS VICTIM ON ZERO NIGHT

Minneapolis, Dec. 20.—Stripped to his underwear and socks by a holdup man, who robbed him of his outer clothing and $144 in cash, Joseph Kone, Vancouver, B. C., was forced to wander about the streets in a residence section here early Monday evening in zero weather for a time before he could find aid. Kone applied at several homes for aid, but the occupants frightened at his appearance, refused. He finally convinced one man of his plight and the police were notified.

Herrin Mine War Cases On Trial

This is the little courthouse at Marion, Ill., where five miners are on trial for their lives for alleged complicity in the Herrin (Illinois) mine war massacre, in which non-union men and guards were shot to death by a mob.

Miss Cosgrove Is Chosen As Football Girl Of Salem High

Fourteen Members Of 1922 County Championship Eleven
Awarded Letters And Gold Footballs Tuesday.

One of the most successful seasons in the history of Salem High school football teams was officially brought to a close Tuesday afternoon in the school auditorium when 14 members of the 1922 county championship eleven were awarded letters and gold footballs for their work during the past season.

The gridirers were not the only ones honored however, as the "Football Girl of Salem High for 1922" was selected by the student body and presented with a gold football also.

Miss Florence Cosgrove, active in all athletic activities at the school, was voted the "1922 Football Girl" and retains possession of the gold football until the close of the 1923 season when the 1923 girl will be named.

The gold footballs were gifts of Dr. H. K. Yaggt who presented the championship emblems to each individual, praising them for their work during the season just closed and declaring that "great things were expected of them in the future."

Those receiving footballs and letters were Capt. Stirling, Manager Forney, Koessler, McKeown, Sheehan, Bolen, Houser, Volmer, Sarick, O'Neill, Crutchley, Greenamy, En-triken and Woods.

The letters were presented by Coach Vivian to each player individually. They are single black letter "S" 12 inches high.

The gold footballs bear the letters "S. H. S." and "County Champions 1922."

Awarding of the honors came after a Christmas program given by students of the High school. Several selections by the faculty quartet were well received, after which community singing by the student body was led by the quartet.

DONAHEY SELECTS THOMAS DUFFY FOR INDUSTRIAL CHIEF

Friends Say Former East
Liverpool Man Will Decline Post.

Columbus, Dec. 20.—Governor-elect Donahey today announced his desire of appointing Thomas J. Duffy, 45, formerly of East Liverpool, as state director of industrial relations. The position pays $6,500 a year.

Mr. Duffy is chairman of the state industrial commission, receiving $5,000 annually. His term expires June 30 next. He was an unsuccessful candidate against Donahey for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination at the primaries last August.

Although Chairman Duffy declined to state whether he would accept the directorship, his friends predicted that he will decline. Mr. Duffy is expected to issue a statement late today.

Governor-elect Donahey also announced that he is offering the position of state superintendent of the budget to Wilbur E. Baker, Columbus, who served as deputy when Donahey was state auditor. The position pays $4,000 a year. Mr. Baker declined to state whether he will accept the offer.

After the first of the new year will come his new opportunity. Before leaving for the east today Hays made public his Christmas present to the roly-poly comedian.

Death was declared due to over-taxation.

POTTERS CAUCUS OVER WAGE SCALE

Report Says Manufacturers
Are Offering Counter
Propositions.

Atlantic City, N. J., Dec. 20.—Members of the conference committee of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters, here to discuss terms for the general wage branch of the pottery industry, which just concluded a nine-weeks' strike, went into another caucus this morning.

The fact that the brotherhood delegates called two caucuses leads to the belief that the manufacturers are offering counter propositions to their original petition from the men for a seven per cent increase and that while a concession will most likely be a wage concession it will not be the full amount asked.

LEGION AUXILIARY ELECTS OFFICERS

Miss Leone Probert was re-elected president of the auxiliary to Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, Tuesday night. These officers were elected at the same time: Vice president, Juanita Litty; secretary, Miss Bessie White; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas Mabey; chaplain, Mrs. Ralph Kuhl.

Mrs. Williamson of Youngstown was a guest of the auxiliary Tuesday night and she gave a splendid account of the national convention held at New Orleans.

Two candidates were initiated at this meeting which was followed by a social period with refreshments.

Proposed Measure Would Provide Aid In Liquor Cleanup

Tenshun, Hunters!

Columbus, Dec. 20.—A rabbit innocently acted the part of a prohibition agent or hooch hound near Canton. Pursued by Game Warden W. C. Moore, according to a report received today at the office of Federal Prohibition Director J. E. Russell today, the rabbit dashed into a shock of fodder. When Moore attempted to catch the rabbit, he came across a still and a can of moonshine liquor.

Council Has Ordinance To Employ Special Boozie
Detectives.

FINES WOULD PAY THEIR SALARIES

Would Act Independently
Of Regular Police Officers.

Salem's city council stands squarely for rigid law enforcement.

This was the attitude of members of the council at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, when an ordinance which would provide for the establishment of a fund to procure the service of additional help in ridding the city of bootleggers and other law violators, was presented for its first reading.

The ordinance as presented would provide for the establishment of a fund from the fines collected by the city under either the city ordinance or Crabbie act, from which money would be used to pay for the services of operators to act independently of the regular police officers.

Hunt Liquor Cases

Such operators would be used solely for the purpose of apprehending violators of liquor laws, but if necessary could also be used for other service at the direction of the safety director.

The entire county would be within the scope of such special officers as would be employed by the city and the officers would be enabled to work in any part of the county, persons arrested being brought to Salem for trial before the mayor, who could try them under either the city ordinance or Crabbie act.

Under the present city ordinance the limit of the fine that may be imposed by the mayor for a liquor law violation is $500, all of which would go to the city.

However, if the case were tried under the state law, or Crabbie act, a fine of $1,000 could be meted out for the first offense with an increase in the amount for any subsequent offense. Of this fine the city would get one-half and the state the remaining half.

Fines Would Pay Salaries

Under terms of the ordinance, 25 per cent of the city's share of the fines collected from liquor law violators, would be put into the fund for the use of the safety director in employing special operators to secure evidence and arrest violators.

The benefits of such an ordinance to the city were explained by Attorney J. L. Hilton of Canton, district counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, who cited instances of the good derived in cities and villages where the ordinance is now in effect.

The money collected in fines will more than pay for the special officers employed, according to Hilton, who declared that it would be possible also for Salem to add to its present police force with the money secured from fines collected from liquor law violators through the work of the special operators.

Some of the cities and towns working under such an ordinance as this have boasted their financial condition considerably through the money collected in fines. Hilton stated, citing two towns in the state that have enriched their treasuries to the extent of from $70,000 to $100,000 in one year by the work of their special operators.

Ordinance Favored

While no official action was taken by the council on the ordinance, it being referred to the ordinance committee for consideration, it was the sentiment of individual members of the body that such an ordinance would be highly beneficial to the city.

Speaking unofficially, President B. L. Flick declared that in his opinion every step should be taken to rid the city of bootleggers and other law violators, but that the city should also get every cent of money possible from such violators.

With one or two minor changes in the ordinance it is expected that the measure will be passed by the council, according to the sentiment expressed at the meeting.

AUTO CRASH BASIS FOR DAMAGE CASE

Russell Conkle and Raymond Bobb, both of Salem, have brought separate suits in common pleas court against Vincent Lepalle of Niles. Each of the plaintiffs demands $1,000 damages as the result of a collision that occurred between a roadster driven by Conkle and an auto driven by Lepalle.

The accident occurred near North Jackson June 7, 1922. Recklessness and a disregard for the road laws were charged against Lepalle. Both men sustained cuts and bruises in the collision and Conkle's car was wrecked.

Judge Moore Begins Third 6-Year Term

Judge J. G. Moore today took the oath of office for his third term, which begins Jan. 1, 1923, and is for six years. The oath was administered by Clerk John Burns of the common pleas court.

TAFLIN IS FOUND GUILTY IN LIQUOR CASE, FINED $500

Testimony Convicts Salem
Man On Transporting Charge.

Gabriel Taflin, 75 Franklin ave., was found guilty of transporting liquor illegally by Mayor Albert W. Ferren Wednesday morning at East Palestine.

Taflin was fined $500 and costs and posted bond of $1,500 to appear later and pay the fine. He pleaded not guilty to the charge against him but testimony of witnesses showed that he was one of the party of four men in charge of the booze seized in a machine last Friday night.

Taflin was the only one of the four arrested to plead not guilty. Three others, Nick Buta, Paul Butum and C. E. Burnett, admitted their guilt when arraigned before Mayor Ferren Saturday morning. The men were arrested by a state officer and two deputies about midnight Friday after a long wait in the snow. They were taken into custody just as they emerged from the house at 56 Brooklyn ave. with a five-gallon keg and two quart jars of moonshine in their possession.

Mercy Venezuela of Wellsville entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling liquor and paid a fine of $600 and costs.

Rocco Pecola, Wellsville, was fined $400 and costs when he pleaded guilty to a selling charge. He also paid his fine.

The Wellsville couple were arrested by state officers last week following their second cleanup in Salem.

Two cases charging liquor possession and carrying concealed weapons, which were assigned for trial before Mayor Stouffer of Washingtonville Wednesday morning, were postponed until next Wednesday.

RELEASE SALEM WOMAN FROM JAIL

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Are Filed In Case Of
Mrs. Nemerilla.

Habeas corpus proceedings were filed Tuesday in Judge Riddle's court for the purpose of having Marie Nemerilla of Salem, released from the county jail on the grounds that it is unlawful to confine a woman in a county jail more than 30 days.

She was released and returned to her home here.

Mrs. Nemerilla was arrested at her home on Brooklyn ave. last Friday night on a liquor charge and fined $800 by Mayor Ferren, of East Palestine. In default of the payment she was sent to the county jail to serve both fine and costs. With her were two small children who also were committed to jail due to lack of other accommodations.

The law plainly states that no woman shall be confined in a county jail in Ohio for misdemeanor for more than 30 days, and the imprisonment of this woman to serve out the fine and costs assessed would keep her in jail more than 150 days.

In a case of this character a prisoner must be sent to the woman's penitentiary at Marysville, according to the law. The case will be heard by Judge Riddle.

Churches Called To Observe Dec. 24 As World Peace Sunday

Washington, Dec. 20.—Urging the powers of the world to find means other than war to settle disputes, the Federal Council of Churches issued a call today to 100,000 congregations to observe Dec. 24 as World Peace Sunday.

The message requested concerted action not only at Christmas but throughout the year toward attaining "an eventually warless world through international co-operation."

The conference of the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches, held in Copenhagen last summer, agreed World Peace Sunday would be observed by Christmas in 27 countries.

Protection Of Children

EVERY friend of childhood will gain new courage from President Harding's recommendation, in his message to congress, of the submission to the people of an amendment to the constitution to prohibit child labor under the American flag, as it has been partly or wholly prohibited under other flags. The necessity for comprehensive and effective action to put a stop to the exploitation of childhood in gainful occupations destructive of their welfare has long issued from the academic stage, and has made its impress on the consciousness of all Americans who have an even approximately clear realization of moral and physical values.

At the recent convention of the National Consumers League—one of the influential organizations that have taken up and emphasized the issue of child labor—it was pointed out that the means hitherto essayed to put a stop to the evil on a national scale have failed lamentably. Edward P. Costigan of the United States Tariff commission commented on the fact that, even since the United States supreme court handed down its latest decision upsetting child labor legislation passed by congress, the evil has grown. It is extremely disquieting to read, for instance, that even while the second national child labor law was in effect, the federal census returns showed that more than 346,000 girls and 714,000 boys between the ages of 10 and 15 were employed in gainful occupations in the United States. In Rhode Island alone the number of children under 16 working in factories had increased from fewer than 5,000 before the supreme court reached its decision to more than 7,000 within four months after it had spoken. Similar increases in other New England states, with the exception of Massachusetts, have been noted. The president said, in his address to congress:

Closely related to the problem of education is the abolition of child labor. Twice congress has attempted the correction of the evils incident to child employment. The decision of the supreme court has put this problem outside the proper domain of federal regulation until the constitution is so amended as to give the congress indubitable authority. I recommend the submission of such an amendment.

Such an amendment to the constitution of the United States should be submitted to the conscience of the American people without undue delay. The sacred rights of childhood have been denied to millions of American children long enough. The degree of civilization which a nation, like an individual, has attained is to be measured accurately by the care which it bestows upon its weak and its defenseless. The American voters, especially since the accession of women to the lists, can be relied upon to remove forever the disgrace implied by this exploitation of the young of the race.

Trying To Stand Alone

A 10-YEAR-OLD BOY shot himself in the hand while playing with a pistol. With a handkerchief he bound the wound and explained to his parents that the bandage was covering "just a scratch." But inflammation from tetanus so tortured the lad that within 24 hours he confessed. Now the lad is dead. The father explained that the fear of probable punishment was the motive for the boy's secrecy. The boy did not know the danger of tetanus from a gun wound. Neither did he understand that his parents would have done everything they could to make right his mistake. He was just a boy as boys go, and a brave one at that. He wanted to see the works of something he knew he ought not to touch. But the tragedy came because he did not know that his father and mother would have tended his wound without scolding him.

Perhaps youngsters never know to what extent their parents go to help one of them in trouble. From the child mind to that of the parent is a long stretch. The natural impulse of the child doing what he thinks is wrong, is to keep it from dad or mother. Perhaps it is too much to expect otherwise. The best that parents can hope for is that they might have the confidence of their children so when in trouble the child will turn to them first.

The self-reliance of this lad who tried to bear his mistake alone was mostly, though tragic. Like many of his elders who, in trouble, fear to consult a friend, he paid the price of trying to stand alone. We all need help, and seldom more than when we blunder.

Of 1,500,000 homes destroyed in Poland during the war, about 500,000 have been rebuilt.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Salem people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor! You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, 174 East Fourth st., Salem, says: "I had a great deal of heavy lifting and stooping to do and my back would get awfully lame and stiff. In the morning I could hardly get out of bed, my back was so lame. My kidneys didn't act right and I had a pain in the back of my head and neck. At times I was very dizzy and when I stooped or looked up I would nearly fall. I felt tired and languid. Hearing what Doan's Kidney Pills were doing for others I got a box at Trimble's drug store. Two boxes of Doan's cured me of backache and kidney trouble. I could not wish for better health than I've had the past year."

Statement given May 21, 1917. On June 6, 1921 Mrs. Zimmerman said: "Doan's kidney pills are a fine medicine. They fixed me up in good shape a few years ago and I gladly confirm my statement of 1917." 50c at all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

STATE MUST PAY FOR UNITY ROAD

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—The State Highway Department has proposed to let the contract for the surfacing of the Unity-Petersburg rd in Unity township in its regular letting Dec. 28.

Should this come to pass, the state will have to guarantee the cost of the road, and the department has been so notified by County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton.

The Unity township trustees have not certified any township funds to the county to apply on this contract. The State Highway Department deals with the county only. Until the trustees deposit their share of the improvement with the county auditor, the county commissioners can take no part in the contract.

"We cannot certify to the State Highway Department that money is in the county treasury for this job when it is not," Mr. Hamilton commented. "If the state wants to go ahead and improve this road at its own expense, I'm sure the county will offer no objections, and I don't think the Unity trustees will either."

AWAITING REPORT OF MAYOR FERREN

East Palestine, Dec. 20.—City council is awaiting with interest the report of Mayor Albert W. Ferren for the month of December, which will be given the first Monday of January. During this month the mayor has so far levied more than $20,000 in liquor fines and has collected nearly $15,000, mostly as the result of recent raids in Salem.

The month of December has already passed the record mark established during November. One-half of the money collected from liquor fines goes to the state and the other half remains in Palestine.

Twenty-five per cent of the city's share is turned over to a fund from which detectives are paid to ferret out other liquor violations.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" rheumatism. It's pain only. St. Jacob's Oil will stop any pain, and not one rheumatism case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating St. Jacob's Oil right on the tender spot, and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. St. Jacob's Oil is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints, and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache and neuralgia.

Lumber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time honest St. Jacob's Oil from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

DONAHEY REQUESTS SIMPLE INAUGURAL

Columbus, Dec. 20.—There will be no inaugural parade, no military demonstration, no customary press smooches and, probably no inaugural ball when Governor-elect Vic Donahey is inducted into office here on Jan. 8 next.

Columbus Chamber of Commerce officials have been informed by Donahey of his desire for simple inaugural ceremonies will be limited to the swearing into office of Governor-elect Donahey at noon before the state legislature after which Ohio's new governor will read his message to the legislature.

A public reception in the state house rotunda in the afternoon and a formal reception in the senate chamber in the evening, honoring Governor-elect Donahey and other newly chosen state officials, would end the day's program.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Readily prepared, and saves about $2.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, or if your child wakes up during the night with croup and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with such promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Stabbed By Neuritis!

Many people suffer attacks by this arch-fiend commonly called "nerve inflammation." The first warning is usually a sharp, stabbing pain which may "come and go" or hurt constantly. You may feel it in the shoulder, neck, forearm, small of the back, or down the thigh and leg to the heel. It is sometimes mistaken for sciatica, rheumatism or neuralgia, which troubles often do end up in neuritis.

No matter where you have nerve pains or what caused them, you can get quick relief without using narcotics or poisons. Just apply Tysmol over the part that hurts and in 3 to 5 minutes the pain should be gone.

Tysmol is absorbed through the pores of the skin. It has a soothing, healing effect upon the diseased nerves, gradually helping to restore them to healthy condition.

Don't suffer any longer. Price $1 at The Lease Drug Co.

SMALL BEGINNINGS
SHOW BIG RESULTS

Many great enterprises begin in a small way. Many a successful advertiser has begun by using classified advertisements in a modest way. These brought good returns, which enabled the business to be developed, and eventually large advertisements were profitably used. Intelligent use of the little ads in The Salem News either by advertiser or reader will prove.

WOULD ABOLISH STATE TAX LEVY

Columbus, Dec. 20. — Further impetus is given to the movement advocating abolition of the state tax levy by State Auditor Joseph T. Tracy in his annual report to the governor.

The Ohio State Tax association and the state senate of Ohio also have advocated this revision. Members of the tax commission have unofficially approved it.

Tracy bases his recommendation on the steadily increasing balance in the general revenue fund during the past two years and states that it is safe to rely on indirect revenues provided by appropriations from the general revenue fund for support of educational measures.

Of the 4,175 miles levied by the general assembly for the years 1921-22 all but .5 mills for the redemption of the soldier bonus bonds and 5 mills for road improvement, went for educational purposes. Tracy points out:

Callahan Tells About Car Test In Long Journey

The following interesting letter from L. A. Callahan, who is now located in Hollywood, Calif., has been received by F. G. Harris of the Harris Manufacturing Co.

"Your letter of Dec. 7, in regard to license transfer received. I suppose you would like to know how my Touring Sedan Buick is behaving. I just looked at the speedometer and it shows 6733 miles. Here are my garage charges up to date: Adjusting push rods at Denver 25 cents; was down to the Buick Service station yesterday and had the left rear wheel tightened and clutch, brakes and carburetor adjusted at a charge of $1.50 making a total layout of $1.75. We certainly put my car to some severe tests. We were in the mountains for two weeks at one time bucking snow 14 inches deep. Was in a sand storm one day and at times you could hardly see 20 feet ahead of you and sand some places up to the axle. We went right through and were the first to get through the storm. In crossing the Mohave desert which is 173 miles; out of about 40 cars, a Cadillac, a Buick sedan and my model 41 were all that got through that day. We went up Pikes Peak about half way but had to turn back as the snow was too deep.

"We got the best of service on the way as we had our car in a Buick garage nearly every night and they always wanted to know if we needed any assistance. The Buick company got 50 flat carloads of Buicks last week. They put five cars on each flat car.

"We have been having rain for a few days. Everything is nice and green and lots of flowers and fruit. We are going to a cousin's of Mrs. Callahan for Christmas. We have a nice three room apartment, everything modern, steam heat, telephone and private garage. We live at the foothills in Hollywood and any one asking about us tell them we are enjoying ourselves very much. There are so many people here whom we know that we do not get lonesome. We have an invitation to a meeting of the Salem society, Dec. 21, at Pasadena."

Unemployment Passing, Ohio Reports Show

Columbus, Dec. 20. The wheels of industry are running rapidly in Ohio and unemployment is becoming a thing of the past, results of a general survey by the Federal Department of Labor show. The rubber industry is reported to be showing unusual strength, and employment in the iron and steel industry is making high records, according to the report, which also says coal production is retarded because of lack of facilities. The report continues: "Sheet mills will operate to capacity until the end of February, and complaints are coming from many cities of a shortage of labor."

"Conditions in the brick industry generally are more favorable than at any other period during 1922. Nearly all brick manufacturing plants are running to capacity. Increasing employment is revealed in the textile industry. The farm implement and tractor business has shown a marked improvement. There is an increase in building operations over November, 1921, throughout the state."

A Gift That's Remembered

Shoes are a splendid sort of a family gift, but to be really Christmasy they should be very nice—a little extra than the person might choose for themselves. If you select satin colonials for Ruth be sure that they are ornamented with attractive buckles. And instead of the school shoes that sister will need anyway put patent leather slippers under the tree. It is the same with mother and dad—make it an "extra" pair.

Lucky Hour Best 3-Year Old Of A Msdiocre Season

The season of thoroughbred racing just concluded, produced no dominating figure such as Man o' War or Morvich. In fact, the popular three-year-old division had no real champion for the first time in many seasons although a dozen or more horses hopped up from time to time as possible candidates. Out of an uncommonly inconsistent lot, Lucky Hour was possibly the best.

Other leading three-year-olds were Kai-Sang, a staunch contender against Lucky Hour for whatever honor there was; Whiskaway, Pillory, Hea, Snoo 2nd, Bunting, Rockminster and Oceanic.

Of the two-year-old Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Sally's Alley earned the title of champion, particularly by his splendid racing during the late stages of the campaign.

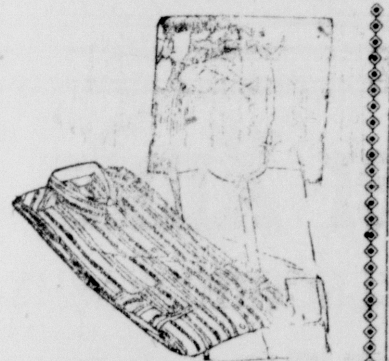

Morvich, unbeaten two-year-old of the 1921 season, began by winning the famous Kentucky Derby of a mile and a quarter at Churchill Downs, but suffered a startling form reversal thereafter and never won another race. He is now retired, after losing to Whiskaway at Aqueduct and upon all subsequent starts.

Pillory won the Preakness by a head from Hea, but neither ran well thereafter. Snoo 2nd was a great sprinter for a brief interval but flopped badly later.

Anybody can use Cornell

MOST boys like to make things. If your boy is handy with tools, he will surprise you with the many useful and entertaining things he can make with

It's easy to saw and handle, and it holds nails because it's all wood. Anybody can use it; and it's ideal for hundreds of uses.

The satisfying thing about Cornell-Wood-Board is the way it serves and looks well for a long time. It's made to. It's mill-primed ready for paint or calcimine; or its oatmeal-finish looks well without. It's triple-sized to resist heat, cold, and moisture—made to "stay put."

"165 Uses for Cornell-Wood-Board" is a booklet telling how you can make many useful things for the home. You can have it for the asking. Phone, write or call for it.

A Toast to Bread

TRY THEM—CLEAN—PURE—WHOLESOME

Here is to the backbone of civilization—BREAD. It satisfies when nothing else can satisfy. Good, sweet, nutritious HOME-BAKED bread comes like a ministering angel to put courage and spirit into the hearts of men. Arrayed in no delicious frostings or tempting garnishments, bread yields the sceptre in its regal way. Companion of prince and peasant, at home in cabin and castle, it is, indeed, builder of men and of nations—our daily bread.

3 Outstanding Figures In 1922 Baseball Season

Three figures stand out, pre-eminent, in the returns from the season of 1922 in baseball. They are John J. McGraw who jockeyed the New York Giants to their second world's title in successive years; Rogers Hornsby, who led the National league in hitting and all baseball in home runs, and George Sisler, who topped the American league in batting, base running and all around excellence.

Hornsby was the first National Leaguer to hit 400 over a full season since the salad days of the late Ed Delahanty and his individual efforts kept the St. Louis Cardinals in the race until the dying weeks of the season. He also smote 42 home runs, breaking the league record, and outdistancing George Herman Ruth, the noble Babe, who had a careworn year what with heavy suspensions and waist lines.

Another St. Louis inspiration, from the American league side of the fence, was George Sisler, who topped the league in hitting with an average of .419 and in stolen bases with 51. St. Louis didn't win any pennants, but it gained much prestige in the individual performances of Sisler and Hornsby.

Cobb Gets Honor

Further honors fell to the lot of Ty Cobb, who not only led the Tigers out of the second division, but according to unofficial averages, batted over .400 for the third time, equalling the major league record. Officially Cobb hit .399, but Ban Johnson, in his large, spacious way, granting Cobb an extra hit on a questionable drive made at the Polo Grounds in May. In so doing, he won him over the heart of the official scorer.

George Herman, the notable Babe, drew a six weeks' suspension at the outset for defying Judge Landis and the now defunct barnstorming rule. When he got back in the game his slugging appeared only in spurts and after several suspensions for badgering umpires, he finished the campaign with 35 home runs, as against his record of 59.

In the world's series he was rather a backfire, getting only two hits.

WANT ORDINANCE TO COMPEL PROPER GAS CONNECTIONS

Council Urged To Act To Prevent Carbon Monoxide Gas Deaths.

Warning against the deadly carbon monoxide gas is contained in an official communication from State Fire Marshal H. A. Dykeman received by Fire Chief Vincent Malloy and presented to Salem city council Tuesday evening for consideration.

A copy of a suggested ordinance accompanies the letter from the fire marshal and council is asked to consider passage of the ordinance as a means of preventing further deaths from the gas, which it is claimed, is caused in homes by stoves not provided with proper connections for conveying gas to and fumes away from the stoves.

Twelve deaths from the gas have occurred in Ohio within the past three weeks, according to the statement issued from the fire marshal's office, with which is included a copy of the Ohio State Board of Health's official message regarding the use of certain types of stoves and heaters.

The ordinance as suggested by the fire marshal would provide that all inside connections for the purpose of conveying gas, either natural or artificial, shall be made of iron, steel or other metals and that any other connection shall be prohibited, this to include rubber hosing.

The ordinance would also require that stoves or heating devices of any kind shall be provided with a flue or chimney for the purpose of carrying off excess gas and gas fumes.

The building inspector, fire chief or duly authorized agent would inspect buildings to see that terms of the ordinance were obeyed, and give a 10 day written notice if violation of the ordinance was found. Failure to comply with the terms of the ordinance within the ten days would mean a fine upon conviction of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

"Carbon monoxide gas is the result of incomplete combustion of any gas, whether it is from wood, coal or fuel gas. In natural gas areas it is not found in the gas itself in sufficient quantities to be a menace to health but comes as the result of burning the gas incompletely," says the message.

Salem already has an ordinance which provides a penalty for the use of rubber tubing as a conveyor of gas, it was stated. The council voted to accept the recommendations of the state fire marshal and file the ordinance for future reference.

RECORDER WANTS LARGER BUDGET

Commissioners Will Oppose Granting Of Larger Amount.

Lisbon, Dec. 20.—Rather strong opposition has developed in granting the 1923 budget estimate filed with the county commissioners by County Recorder John R. Reark. The commissioners granted an allowance of $4,400, but now Reark has gone into common pleas court and has asked for $5,258.50.

In his petition to the court, Reark admits that he has been allowed $4,400 but adds, "which sum the recorder contends is not the legal amount under said section of law." The law provides that the recorder shall have set aside for the running expenses of his office 40 per cent of the first $2,000 which is $800 and 60 per cent of the next $7,439.84 or $4,458.50.

It is the contention of the commissioners that the fees of the office should not be "eaten up" in salaries, and that the budget of $4,400 allowed is quite sufficient to pay the salaries of the office, outside that of the recorder himself.

"I don't propose to spend any more than is absolutely necessary but I want to be protected in the event of any emergency," Mr. Reark has said. "Last year the office received in fees, $9,430.84, and we had some left to be returned to the fee fund."

The commissioners contend that the amount of money sought by Reark is not necessary, and the petition will be contested.

"I'll be satisfied with whatever the court says," Reark has declared.
